Success starts with Access...

Congratulations!

Helena Biggs

Helena completed her Level 2 Teaching Assistant course in just under 7 months! Helena is a volunteer parent helper at a local voluntary aided primary school.

“When I first started the course I was not sure I would be able to completed it. My tutor was extremely helpful! I found the work easier than I had first thought. and I have found that coming into Access Training has helped me understand the work better”

Helena completed the course within 7 months—The school were so impressed with her they are going to support her through her level 3!
