

Teaching Assistant Apprenticeship

(Level 3)

An apprenticeship is a real job with an accompanying skills development programme. It is a way to earn and learn, gaining valuable skills, knowledge and behaviours whilst in a specific job role.

Teaching Assistants work within Primary, Special and Secondary education settings across all age ranges.

A Teaching Assistant's role is to support the class teacher to enhance pupils' learning either in groups or individually, ensuring pupils understand the work set, know their learning objectives, and stay on task in order to make progress.

A Teaching Assistant will promote self-belief, social inclusion and high self esteem, as well as play an integral part in pupils' wellbeing to ensure they thrive in a positive, nurturing, safe environment.

Knowledge, skills and behaviour

- How pupils learn and develop
- Keeping children safe in education
- Curriculum intent, implementation and impact
- Working with teachers to understand and support assessment for learning.

Typical job roles

- Teaching Assistant, Assistant Teacher, Learning Support Assistant.

Our apprenticeship journey

Starting an apprenticeship is an exciting and challenging undertaking. We have summarised some of the main aspects of our apprenticeship journey below.

Why Access Training?

The flexibility of our training model

We have a broad range of services; including apprenticeships, and CPD courses, which can be tailored to suit your organisation's training and recruitment needs.

Continuous Professional Development (CPD)

We will work with you to design, develop and deliver a bespoke package of CPD programmes covering the skills, knowledge, experience and behaviours required.

The support we offer to our employers and learners

We offer a tailored blended approach to our learning. Providing one-to-one support, our expert staff are always on hand to guide, encourage, provide feedback, and share best practice.

Funding

We are an approved provider of apprenticeships and can utilise government funding, such as the Apprenticeship Levy, to support employers.

Our background

We have over 40 years' experience in delivering learning and apprenticeships. We're trusted partners of the Education and Skills Funding Agency (ESFA), and CIH, and are regulated by Ofsted.

Other services

Our services also include bespoke packages of training to organisations looking for short-term, operational learning opportunities for their people.

For additional information and to discuss your individual requirements, contact our Engagement Team who will be happy to help.
